The tallies must be made with indelible pencil or pen and ink as the name of each candidate written in is read aloud. Tallies should be made by marking a short mark across the face of the tally numbers (beginning with No. 1) at an angle (as shown above). (See above illustration.)

When the total vote has been tallied the total for each candidate must be written out in the left hand box preceding the word "votes" and set out in numerals in the right hand box. Directly above the total written in the left hand box write or print the name of the candidate clearly and under the total vote line write the name of the office (see above).
