Minor revisions to a project that has been approved under a permit are allowed in certain circumstances. Changes that are not substantive are not required to obtain a revision and may be allowed as activities to implement the original permit. Examples of such include minor changes in facility orientation or location, minor changes in structural design that do not change the height or increase ground floor area, and minor accessory structures (such as equipment covers or small sheds near the main structure, etc.) (YCC 16C.03.25(1)(a)).

Substantive changes are those that materially alter the project in a manner that relates to its conformance with the permit requirements. Changes not able to meet the criteria must obtain a new permit. Such changes may be approved as a minor revision, if the Administrative Official determines that the proposed revision and all previous revisions are within the scope and intent of the original permit, and meet the criteria listed below (YCC 16C.03.25(1)(b)):

1. ☐ No additional over water construction will be involved, except that pier, dock, or float construction may be increased by five hundred square feet or ten percent from the provisions of the original permit, whichever is less;
2. ☐ Lot coverage and height may be increased a maximum of ten percent from the provisions of the original permit: PROVIDED, that revisions involving new structures not shown on the original site plan shall require a new permit, and: PROVIDED FURTHER, that any revisions authorized under this subsection shall not exceed height, lot coverage, setback or any other requirements of these regulations;
3. ☐ Landscaping may be added to a project without necessitating an application for a new permit, PROVIDED that the landscaping is consistent with conditions (if any) attached to the original permit and is consistent with this title for the area in which the project is located;
4. ☐ The use authorized pursuant to the original permit is not changed;
5. ☐ No additional significant adverse environmental impact will be caused by the project revision.

Minor revisions to existing permits shall be processed as a Type I review, as provided under YCC Title 16B (Project Permit Administration). Parties of record to the original permit shall be notified of the revision, though a comment period is not required (YCC 16C.03.25(2)).

If there are additional property owners, provide an attachment in the same format and with the same declaration.

Form # PLN ENR 001-Q1 A
Revised 7-1-16

INSTRUCTIONS

NOTE: If your project involves Agricultural Activities on designated Rural or Agriculture lands, consult with a natural resources planner.

Consult with a Natural Resources Planner BEFORE using this application form. Read this questionnaire BEFORE designing your project so that you can design the project to meet the standards. If you have designed the project without consideration of the legal requirements, then the review process will be much more difficult, take much more time, and will likely need costly changes to the plans. A project that clearly meets all the standards is much easier and less time consuming for your project reviewer to approve. Please consider if you will be able to prepare the application yourself or whether you will need to work with a private consultant.

IMPORTANT: Please understand that many projects require that a critical areas study performed by qualified professional be submitted to identify the critical area. There are some instances where staff can easily perform the identification, and help you avoid a report, but that is not always the case.

Please note that you probably will not need to submit all pages – only those that apply. There are 5 required pages. Supplemental pages may be needed. The Natural Resources Planner assisting you will help you determine which pages to remove, and will help with answering questions.

The questions are designed to help you and the application reviewer understand how your project meets the legal requirements in the Critical Area Ordinance (CAO) and Shoreline Master Program (SMP). In filling out this questionnaire, be sure to refer to the appropriate sections of the CAO. If you are within Shoreline jurisdiction, you should also refer to the SMP. You can obtain a copy of the SMP in our offices. You can obtain a copy of the CAO in our offices, or access it on the internet at:

<http://www.co.yakima.wa.us/cmrs> (choose 'County Code')

The questionnaire is organized around groups of questions concerning different subjects, which are clearly labeled. All applications are required to answer the questions regarding whether the Use is Allowed and for meeting the General Standards. The questions on the supplemental must be answered when different subjects apply to the project (for example: filling, roads, utilities, etc). There are seven (7) questions on the first page of the questionnaire used to determine which of the supplemental sheets to fill out. If you answer YES to one of these questions, then that sheet of questions applies to the project and you must include it. If there is a sheet of questions which do not apply to your project, you may remove that sheet from the questionnaire.

Each group of questions relates to a particular subject and is headed by a shaded box. The box asks if all the standards for that subject are met. Circle either the YES or NO answer based on the questions under the shaded box. If you answer NO in the shaded box, you will need to modify your plans or apply for an adjustment or variance of the standard – a separate application. The questions under the shaded box help you determine if you are meeting the standards. The questions are arranged in nested order – meaning that when questions are indented under another question, they are related to just that question. If you need help understanding the layout of the questionnaire, or need help with specific questions, contact your Natural Resources Planner. If you wish to fill out the questionnaire digitally, contact a staff person for a MS Word version.

NOTE:      If you answer NO to the questions in the shaded boxes of the questionnaire, you will need to either change your plans to conform to the requirement, or obtain an Adjustment or Variance from the standard that is not met. Such reviews require separate forms and materials to be prepared, and may delay the project.

QUESTION SHEETS TO INCLUDE IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE

All projects must answer questions on the 5 REQUIRED sheets regarding Allowed Uses and General Standards. Answer the questions below to determine what supplemental sheets you also need to fill out. If you answer YES, then that sheet of questions must be included. If there is a supplemental sheet of questions which do not apply to your project, you may remove that sheet from the questionnaire.

Instructions for Shoreline/Critical Areas Permit Submittal Checklist

1. Pre-Application and Site Visit

Schedule a Pre-Application Meeting and site visit with a Natural Resources Planner. A Pre-Application Meeting is required before submitting an application. This is often in conjunction with a site visit to confirm the presence of the critical area. Information useful in helping you design the project will be provided, and the type of required review and permits will be determined.

2. Permit Application Form

Fill out the application form with person, property, and project information that applies to your proposal. Fill out the non-shaded areas. Include any reductions of standards you are requesting, and list the main parts of the project (residence, bridge, business, addition, etc.). Consult with a Natural Resources Planner to help determine what critical areas are present. Be sure to include signatures and contact information of all owners of the properties in question.

3. Shoreline/Critical Areas Questionnaires

Fill out the applicable questionnaires (instructions are provided with each). Be sure to answer all applicable questions to avoid delays in the review. The questionnaire will help you design your project in a way to meet the ordinance requirements. The answers to the questions will speed our review of the project.

4. Special Review Criteria Responses – Consult with a Natural Resources Planner to determine what special reviews will be needed with your project. Attach all applicable criteria responses to your application. The application cannot be approved unless the criteria are met.

- If a project cannot meet a Shoreline standard, then a Shoreline Variance is required. A Variance may be approved if meeting a particular standard would cause undue hardship. Applications for Variances must include a response to the Shoreline Variance criteria, which are found in the information sheet on Shoreline Variances.
- Certain uses are listed as Shoreline Conditional Uses, because they may not be acceptable at certain locations, or may need special consideration. Applications for Conditional Uses must include a response to the Conditional Use criteria, which are found in the information sheet on Shoreline Conditional Uses.
- Critical Areas Adjustments may be authorized when conditions preclude meeting an ordinance standard, and where the site plan and project design include protection or improvement of the critical area. Applications for Adjustments must include a response to the Adjustment criteria, which are found in the information sheet on Critical Areas Adjustments.

5. Complete Written Description of the Project

Describe the different things you are proposing to do, why you are doing them, and how you will do the work. Refer to the Questionnaire to help you describe all the parts of the project.

6. Proposed Mitigation

Describe the actions you will take to prevent impacts to, or enhance the Shorelines or Critical Areas that are impacted by the proposed land use. Examples of mitigation include plantings, fencing off buffers, etc. Refer to the information sheet on mitigating impacts of development near critical areas.

7. Site Plan / Cross-Sections

Provide a Site plan that includes all things related to the project, and includes the Shorelines/Critical Areas. Examples: geologic hazard; floodplain; floodway; wetlands, streams, rivers, vegetative buffers; structures; parking/driveway; yard area; etc. Provide Cross-sections to show the relationships between buildings and the critical areas, and to show the finished building height. Both the site plan and the cross-sections must be drawn to scale with distances and the scale shown on the drawing. See the information sheet on preparing Site Plans and Cross-Sections for more information. A copy of the site plan must be provided at a size that we can use to make photocopies.

8. Staff SEPA Consultation

Most projects need review under the State Environmental Policy Act. However, certain small scale activities may be exempt. Consult with staff to determine if your project qualifies for an exemption.

9. Fees Paid

Permit fees must be paid before the review process begins.
