

WHILE YOU WAIT...

(for services at Children's Village)

Zoom Series with Providers

The Pandemic has impacted already long waiting lists for children with special needs and their families. Parents and caregivers are anxious to begin services that support their child's health and development.

There IS something you can do now!

Join our While You Wait series to learn how you can support your child's development at home. We're offering classes with Children's Village and community providers, as well as video tutorials, that will help YOU help your child while you wait for formal services to begin.
