|-------------------------------|--|
| date of hearing | Monday, November 22, 2021 |
| in attendance | Jennifer Richter, designated appointee for Charles Ross, Yakima County Auditor Joe Brusic, Yakima County Prosecuting Attorney Ron Anderson, Chair, Yakima County Board of County Commissioners Kathy Fisher, Yakima County Elections Manager Martha Jimenez, Yakima County Bilingual Program/Elections Office Coordinator Nancy Tongate, Yakima County Elections Voting System Program Representative |
| hearing convened | 4:30pm |
| statement of challenge | A voter registration challenge was submitted on November 2, 2021 Vicki Ripley, a registered voter, based on the belief that Chelsea Dimas did not live at the address where she was registered to vote. The challenge of the registration indicated that Chelsea Dimas was registered to vote at: 1613 S 14 th St Sunnyside WA 98944 |
| | Vicki Ripley indicated that Chelsea Dimas actually resided at an address on: Cemetery Rd Sunnyside WA 98944 |
| summary of hearing | Kathy Fisher, Elections Manager, provided an overview of the hearing process, read into record the signed voter registration challenge form submitted by Ms. Ripley, and noted that certified mail had been sent and received to both addresses for Ms. Dimas. In addition, it was noted that in a previous challenge hearing in which the challenged voter did not attend, the decision was to place the challenged voter on inactive status which automatically generates a mailing in which the voter can respond with a corrected or confirmed address. |
| decision | As noted by Mr. Brusic that the declaration was signed under penalty of perjury, a motion was made by Mr. Brusic to place Chelsea Dimas' voter registration on inactive status. The motion was then seconded by Mr. Anderson. The motion was unanimously approved and election staff was directed to place Ms. Dimas' voter registration on inactive status. |
