September 14th, 2023

The attached Levy calculation forms include information needed for your 2024 property tax levy certification. Because certain elements of value are not provided to the County Assessor until later in the year the calculations include certain estimates. In addition, exemptions and changes to property can change the total assessed value which can adjust the final maximum levy in some cases.

The forms go into more detail, but the most important numbers are as follows:

2024 Maximum Allowed (estimate)	$7,953,679.21
2024 1% Amount	$46,900.65
2024 Maximum %	67.2071%
2024 Maximum $ Increase	$3,173,014.11

Because you have an approved lid lift for 2024, please make sure to check with me if you have questions on your levy amounts. It is always a good idea to add to the Maximum Allowed in your levy requests to account for growth in levy and value. Forms from the Department of Revenue have been included and originals can be found at <https://dor.wa.gov/get-form-or-publication/forms-subject/property-tax-forms#Levy>.

If you have any questions, you may contact our office at (509) 574-1100 or by e-mail at levy@co.yakima.wa.us.

Sincerely,

Jacob Tate

The attached Levy calculation forms include information needed for your 2024 property tax levy certification. Because certain elements of value are not provided to the County Assessor until later in the year the calculations include certain estimates. In addition, exemptions and changes to property can change the total assessed value which can adjust the final maximum levy in some cases.

The forms go into more detail, but the most important numbers are as follows:

2024 Maximum Allowed (estimate)	$688,112.95
2024 1% Amount	$6,769.72
2024 Maximum %	1.0000%
2024 Maximum $ Increase	$6,769.72

If you are choosing some amount other than the 1% increase, please check with me to go over what your request should be. It is always a good idea to add to the Maximum Allowed in your levy requests to account for growth in levy and value. Forms from the Department of Revenue have been included and originals can be found at <https://dor.wa.gov/get-form-or-publication/forms-subject/property-tax-forms#Levy>.
