

Fire Marshal's Office Vision Statement

To be a leading force in fire prevention, safety education, and community risk reduction, fostering a safer Yakima County where lives, property, and natural resources are protected through proactive service, innovation, and collaboration.

